are back for four days
February 19 through 22, 2023

Overlapping with the dates of Lineapelle and HOMI Fashion&Jewels

Milan, 18 October 2022 – In view of the success of the last edition, international footwear show MICAM Milano, international leather goods and fashion accessories show MIPEL, and TheOneMilano, an international showcase of outerwear and haute-à-porter fashion, will once again be held all together in a four-day trade fair. The shows will be open February 19 through 22, 2023 at Fiera Milano, from 9:30 to 18:30 on the first three days and from 9:30 to 16:00 on 22 February.

The four-day event confirms the recovery of the industries represented at the three Confindustria Moda trade shows, which continue to stand out for their attractive and complementary events, maintaining the synergies established over the past two years. The emphasis will be on Italian fashions, much appreciated abroad, though there will also be plenty of interesting international designers skilfully combining different cultures: a successful blend that will be sure to attract plenty of international dealers in today's climate of renewed enthusiasm.

The event will also overlap with the dates of HOMI Fashion&Jewels, confirmed for February 17 through 20, and Lineapelle, scheduled for February 21 through 23, offering dealers yet another opportunity to discover the latest new designs and trends.
